ASU Marching Mountaineers

"North Carolina's Band of Distinction!"

Appalachian State University's official ring of the Marching Mountaineers is a unique symbol which represents the bond and kinship of those who have been proudly associated with the band - now as well as the members of the Band Alumni Association.

Those Mountaineers who have participated for two years in the band have earned the privilege to wear this unique symbol of recognition which reflects your affiliation with the distinguished ASU Marching Mountaineers.

You can't put a price on the pride, achievement and friendship gained in your college years. But you can take them with you. Every time you glance at your Band Ring, you can revisit the greatest years of your life. Over and over again.

Wearing this ring means you belong.
Forever.
